PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision by removing the following special condition:

CAUSE

On April 4, 2013, the offender's term of supervised release commenced; however, he was placed in Colville tribal custody on the same day due to an outstanding tribal warrant. He was release from tribal custody on April 8, 2013. Prior to his release from tribal custody, the offender arranged to reside with his sister in Grand Coulee, Washington. After meeting with the offender's sister at the residence, and contacting the Grant County Sheriff's Office with respect to the appropriateness of the residence for sex offender housing, the undersigned officer approved the residence for the offender. Therefore, it is respectfully recommended that special condition #14 be removed, as it is not needed to help the offender re-enter the community at this time.
